LLOYDS TSB GROUP BOARD CHANGE

David Pritchard will be retiring from the board and the group when his current term as Deputy Chairman comes to an end at the annual general meeting in May 2005. He has served on the board for 7 years: as Group Executive Director, Wholesale & International Banking and Group Treasurer for 5 years, and, subsequently, as Deputy Chairman for 2 years.

Maarten van den Bergh, Chairman of Lloyds TSB Group plc, said "We shall miss David's wise counsel. His knowledge of financial markets, in particular, has been of great value to the group and I have much enjoyed working with him over the past years."

BIOGRAPHICAL DETAILS

DAVID PRITCHARD

David Pritchard became Deputy Chairman in April 2003 having previously served as Group Executive Director, Wholesale and International Banking.

He joined TSB Group as treasurer in 1995 and was seconded for a two year term to the Securities and Investments Board in 1996, following TSB's merger with Lloyds Bank. At the Securities and Investments Board, he was responsible for the regulatory supervision and policy of the UK's markets and exchanges, and for all the Securities and Investments Board's international activities. He returned to the Group in May 1998 when he became Group Treasurer.

While at the Securities and Investments Board, David chaired the team drawn from the regulatory bodies which merged to form the Financial Services Authority.
